
EXCHANGE LINES AND USAGEA. General

1. Exchange Access Service is the furnishing of facilities necessary for communicating within and between specified exchange areas. The service is classified as both Local Exchange and Interexchange Telecommunications Service. Service is comprised of two components - Network Access and Usage.
 - a. Network Access is described in paragraph B.
 - b. Network Access Business services are classified as competitive for all business customers.
 - c. Network Access Residence services are classified as competitive telecommunications services for all residence customers.
 - d. Usage services are described in paragraphs C and D, and in Part 11, Section 1.
 - e. Interdistrict Band Designations for Usage services are in Part 4, Section 7.
2. Service is furnished only for use by the customer; the customer's family, guest, household, employees and business associates; persons temporarily subleasing a customer's residential premises; joint users of the customer's service; end-users of service resold or shared in accordance with Part 2, Section 2; patrons of a composite data service vendor when the service is used for composite data service and by International Record Companies for overseas data message service.
3. There are two classes of service: Business and Residence. The classification of a customer's service as Business or Residence is determined by these conditions, which define the character of use for rate purposes.
 - a. Service will be classified as business if:
 1. the service is used primarily or substantially for a paid commercial, professional or institutional activity, or
 2. the service is situated in a commercial, professional or institutional location, or other location serving primarily or substantially as a site of an activity for pay, or
 3. the service number is listed as the principal or only number for a business in any Company Listing Information System, or
 4. the service is used to conduct promotions, solicitations, or market research for which compensation or reimbursement is paid or provided. However, such use of service, without compensation or reimbursement, for a charitable or civic purpose shall not constitute business use of a service.

(T)

3. (cont'd)
 - b. Service will be classified as Residence if none of the conditions of paragraph a apply, and
 1. the use of the service is primarily and substantially of a social or domestic nature, and
 2. service is located in a residence or, in the case of a combined business and residence premises, the service is located in bona fide residential quarters of such premises and business service is located in the business quarters of the same premises. Residence service may be extended into a business location, in the case of the combined business and residence premises, on an incoming-only basis.
 - c. If the level of usage for a customer with a Residential class of service is $140.00 in minutes of use charges, or if the Company receives information indicating that a customer's Residence service is being used for business, the Company may begin a review of the customer's billing records. If the Company's review of its data and/or billing records indicates that a customer has used and is using a Residential class of service in a manner requiring a Business classification as defined in paragraph a, the customer shall be contacted by the Company and told of the findings. The customer shall have an opportunity to provide reasonable and adequate data to show that the Residential service is being used for residence use consistent with these conditions. If the customer refuses or is unable to show that the service is being used for residence use consistent with these conditions, the Company may change the service to a Business classification and begin billing the appropriate rates and charges after notifying the customer of the intended action.
4. Residence Local Area Family Service and other multi-line Residence services consist of:
 - a. the usage component(s) to be associated with two direct Residence lines which may be arranged for sequential hunting in one direction only, and
 - b. two listings if required. (T)
5. All types of usage service have specified local calling areas which are areas that can be called on a flat rate basis (no charge for individual calls), on a message unit basis, or on a minutes of use basis.
6. Service associated with Residence Network Access Lines terminating in a Residence P.B.X. is provided at the same rates as service associated with Residence Direct Lines.

4. Service Transport Facilities (STF)

a. Description

1. Customer premises may be connected to the Company's central office by means of Service Transport Facilities.^{/1/}
2. Service Transport Facilities are classified as competitive telecommunications service for all Business customers.
3. The use of these facilities is limited to those services provided for in this Guidebook. As such, STF is only offered in accordance with those services.
4. The part of the Service Transport Facilities price that is attributable to Network Access is determined by the average price per pair for all STF serving a customer, multiplied by the equivalent trunks required for all services using those facilities. Equivalent trunk values for Centrex are shown in paragraph B.4 b.2.
5. Service Transport Facilities are provided on a one facility pair-at-a-time basis.
6. Service Transport Facilities provided on a pair-at-a-time basis are provided on a one-month contract.

EXCHANGE LINES AND USAGE (cont'd)C. Usage Services in Market Service Areas 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 9 and 15 (cont'd)*6. ValueLink Option F - Win Rate Plan*a. Description

ValueLink Option F – Win Rate Plan is an optional calling plan that provides eligible Business customers (excluding Coin or Semi-Public) all their Band C Usage at a single discounted per minute of use rate. Eligible Business customers are those who are currently subscribed to another carrier for their IntraMSA Band C usage and are now selecting the Company.

b. Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions contained herein are specific to the service and are in addition to the terms and conditions set forth in other portions of this Guidebook.

1. ValueLink Option F – Win Rate Plan is applicable to IntraMSA Band C calls only.
2. ValueLink Option F – Win Rate Plan is applicable to customer dialed station-to-station calls only. Operator handled calls are not included. (C)
3. In order to receive the ValueLink Option F – Win Rate Plan rate, the customer must commit to a 12-month term plan, after which the customer will automatically renew service at the same rate and the same 12-month contract period unless the customer or the Company expressly indicates otherwise within 60 days of expiration.
4. ValueLink Option F – Win Rate Plan provides a ninety (90) day customer satisfaction guarantee that allows new customers to cancel this term plan without incurring termination liability charges within the first 90 days of the 12-month term. This satisfaction guarantee does not apply to customers that terminate a Company usage term plan or convert from another Company usage term product to subscribe to ValueLink Option F – Win Rate Plan.

EXCHANGE LINES AND USAGE (cont'd)D. USAGE SERVICES IN MARKET SERVICE AREAS 4, 5, 10, 12, 13 AND 16

Usage Services in Market Service Areas 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 9 and 15 are furnished in accordance with the rates, terms and conditions as set forth in paragraph C.

1. General

- a. The exchanges included in MSAs 4, 5, 10, 12, 13 and 16 are listed in paragraph D.1.e.
- b. Two types of usage service are offered:
 1. Local Area Service (see paragraph D.2)
 2. Message Rate Service (see paragraph D.3)
- c. These types of usage services are offered to both Business and Residence customers. In exchanges where more than one type of service is offered, all P.B.X. trunk usage in the same P.B.X. system must be of the same type.

Flat rate charges are applicable on a per line, trunk or equivalent trunk basis.

The monthly charges for usage do not include the monthly charge for the network access line(s) as specified in paragraph B., or monthly rates for ports as specified herein.

The rates for local calls from wire telephones to mobile stations are the same as those applicable between wire telephones.

- d. To be classified as a local call, at the dial rate, a call must be originated and completed without Company Operator assistance and billed to the originating telephone. All other calls within the flat rate local calling area of Local Area Service are billed as described in Part 11, Section 1. Busy line verify and interrupt services are described in Part 11, Section 4.

2. Local Area Service (cont'd)

- e. For the purpose of determining monthly rates for Local Area Service, exchanges are classified into rate groups as follows:
 - 1. Rate groups for Local Area Service depend upon the number of weighted Network Access Lines of all carriers in the flat rate local calling area of the exchange. The number of weighted Network Access Lines is determined by multiplying the number of Network Access Lines in each exchange of the local calling area by the appropriate weighting factor shown below:

Where the distance between the customer's exchange and the local calling area exchange is:	Each network access line in the local calling area exchange is counted as:
10 miles or less	1
Over 10 miles to 15 miles	2
Over 15 miles to 20 miles	3
Over 20 miles to 25 miles	4

The appropriate mileage measurement is the airline distance between the rate center of the exchange involved and the rate center of the local calling area exchange or exchanges.

- 2. The rate groups and the access line limits are as follows:

Rate Group	Access Line Limits
1	7,000 or less
2	7,001 to 15,000
3	15,001 to 25,000
4	25,001 to 45,000
5	45,001 to 80,000
6	80,001 to 120,000
7	120,001 to 180,000
8	180,001 to 260,000
9	260,001 to 360,000
10	360,001 to 480,000
11	480,001 to 620,000
12	620,001 to 780,000
