Remote Call Forwarding (RCF) - permits a customer in one exchange to arrange for calls made to a different telephone number in the same or different exchange (where RCF facilities are available) to be automatically forwarded and automatically billed to the customer's station. This station to which calls are forwarded may be either local exchange service, foreign exchange service, or Inward Wide Area Telecommunications Service (800 Service).

Transmission characteristics may vary depending on the distance and routing necessary to complete the remotely forwarded call. Remote Call Forwarding is not represented as suitable for satisfactory transmission of data.

Call Forwarding should not be offered as a feature at the customer's station.

The Company will not provide identification of the originating telephone number to the Remote Call Forwarding customer.

Remote Call Forwarding is provided on the condition that the customer subscribe to sufficient RCF features and facilities to adequately handle calls to the RCF customer without interfering with or impairing any services offered by the Company. If in the opinion of the Company, additional Remote Call Forwarding features at the call forwarding location or facilities at the customer's station are needed, the customer will be required to subscribe for such additional RCF features and facilities. In the event the customer refuses to subscribe for such additional RCF features and facilities, said customer's RCF service shall be subject to termination.

One listing in the Listing Information System covering the exchange in which the call forwarding central office is located is provided without additional charge.

The calling party who places a call to a Remote Call Forwarding telephone number is responsible for any charges between the originating location and the RCF telephone number, except for a long distance collect call which is accepted by the RCF customer.

The Remote Call Forwarding customer is responsible for the charges between the RCF telephone number and the terminating station. On local calls, a charge equivalent to the charges for Message Rate additional local messages is applicable. On long distance calls, the applicable charge is the customer dialed station-to-station charge as indicated in Message Telecommunication Service. If the terminating station is Inward Wide Area Telecommunications Service (800 Service); the appropriate charges for usage as indicated in this Company's intrastate or interstate WATS Services apply. These charges apply to all calls answered at the customer's telephone.

Business customers who have their exchange access service with another carrier and who now establish their exchange access service with the Company and subscribe to RCF will receive a discounted monthly rate of $5.00 per RCF path for the first 12 months. The discounted monthly rate applies to the initial as well as additional RCF paths, excluding 800 service lines. Additionally, these same customers will receive a waiver of RCF nonrecurring charges. To qualify for this discounted rate and waiver, the Remote Call Forwarding Number (CFN) must terminate to a Company business access line. Subscribers may have a maximum of ten (10) RCF paths (initial/additional) per billing account participating in this discounted service, and each RCF path must be located in the same state where the qualifying local exchange business service is established. Subscribers must order RCF service within 30 days of establishing the qualifying exchange access service from another carrier in order to be eligible for this discounted service. This offer is not available to customers who have local service with an affiliate of the Company.
