A2. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A2.14 Customer Agents

A2.14.1 General

- A. The conditions specified herein apply to any entity (hereinafter "agent"), including but not limited to Customer Premises Equipment Providers, Enhanced Service Providers, and Interexchange Carriers acting or purporting to act on behalf of a customer or prospective customer (hereinafter "customer") in transactions with the Company. Such transactions may include, but are not limited to: (1) requests for information about the service or equipment of any customer, (2) negotiations regarding deposits, (3) orders for establishment of or changes in service or equipment, and (4) requests for or inquiries concerning the repair or maintenance of the service or equipment of any customer.

A2.14.2 Responsibility of the Agent

- A. The agent shall at all times act within the scope of the agent's authority as defined in the agent's agreement with the customer and shall not undertake any transaction with the Company on behalf of any customer unless the agent has been authorized to do so by that customer.
- B. In undertaking any such transactions on behalf of any customer, the agent shall comply with all terms and conditions in this section of this Guidebook applicable to the transaction or to the service or equipment to which the transaction pertains.

A2.14.3 Warranty and Liability of the Agent

- A. By undertaking any transaction with the Company on behalf of a customer, the agent warrants and represents to the Company that the agent has been duly authorized by the customer to act on behalf of the customer in the transaction undertaken. In the event that the customer denies that the agent has acted within the scope of its authority, the agent shall assume responsibility for such transactions and will indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any and all damages, losses, or claims resulting from such dispute or denial by the customer, except for any damages, losses, or claims resulting from the Company's willful misconduct, and will pay any and all applicable rates and charges for services rendered or equipment supplied by the Company because of the agent's actions. The foregoing in no way absolves the customer from liability arising from transactions performed by the agent on behalf of the customer.

A2.14.4 Proof of Authority

- A. When the Company in the reasonable exercise of the Company's discretion believes it appropriate, the Company may request proof of the authority of any party claiming to be the agent of the customer prior to acting upon such request. Failure of the Company to request such proof shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the agent's responsibility or liability set forth herein, nor shall such a failure constitute a waiver of the Company's right to request such proof at any time in the future.

A100. OBSOLETE SERVICE OFFERINGS - GENERAL

A100.1 General

- A. Service offerings listed herein are classified as Obsolete. Conditions applicable to these offerings are set forth in paragraphs following.
 - 1. Basic Local Service

Coding to indicate those classes of basic local service which are not offered at all or which have been obsoleted is shown in Section A3. with appropriate footnotes. The footnotes are keyed to the specific exchanges to which they apply.
 - 2. Service offerings (other than classes of basic local exchange service) which have been made obsolete are classified according to the categories shown following.
 - Type A - Obsolete service offering. Not available to customers as new service offering except in cases where the obsolete service is left in or when transferred to a new location within the same exchange.
 - Type B - Not available for new installations, additions or on transfers of service to new location.
 - Type C - Unit no longer being manufactured; offered for new installations only as obtainable from existing stock.
 - Type D - Any other arrangement; the specific provisions in each case being stated at the beginning of the text for the obsolete service offering affected.
- B. Obsolete services are furnished subject to all the terms and conditions of the guidebook the same as would be applicable if the service offering were not obsolete. For convenience in use, a guidebook reference is provided as an aid in referring the reader to a specific section of the guidebook having a bearing on the obsolete service offering.
- C. Services which are continued in service for existing customers only may be retained by a customer as long as the equipment is repairable and the Company is able to obtain repair parts under normal supply conditions. When this equipment becomes unrepairable or repair parts are unobtainable, the service will be discontinued and the equipment removed by the Company.
