

2.1 Definitions

As used in this Service Guide, the following terms are defined as follows:

AT&T

Participating Carriers identified in the Participating Carriers Table.

Commingling

Commingling means the connecting, attaching, or otherwise linking of an unbundled network element, or a combination of unbundled network elements, to one or more facilities or services that a requesting telecommunications carrier has obtained at wholesale from AT&T, or the combining of an unbundled network element, or a combination of unbundled network elements, with one or more such facilities or services. Commingling means the act of commingling.

Customer

Any individual, partnership, association, joint-stock company, trust, corporation, governmental entity, or any other entity which subscribes to the Service AT&T offers under this Service Guide, including both AT&T's wholesale customers and End User customers.

Customer Site

The location at which the Service is terminated, and will be construed to include an End User's Site, as appropriate in the context, where Customer is a wholesale Customer and Service is terminated at the End User's Site that is not AT&T's Customer.

End User

Any customer of a telecommunications service that is not a carrier, except that a carrier will be deemed to be an "End User" when such carrier uses a telecommunications service for administrative purposes, and a person or entity that offers telecommunications services exclusively as a reseller will be deemed to be an "End User" if all resale transmissions the reseller offers originate on the Reseller's Site.

Service

Service means AT&T Wavelength MetroSM (AWM)(f/k/a AT&T Dedicated Ethernet) or AT&T Switched Ethernet(ASE) (which may individually referred to as Service and collectively be referred to as Services).
