31.3.1 Service Description

ReliaNet is a transport service, providing customer access to a SONET-based high capacity inter-office network utilizing ring network architecture for facility redundancy and fault-tolerance in the event of a single facility or equipment failures.

The basic structure of the ReliaNet revolves around the SWBT (the Telephone Company) inter-office network. This transport network consists, by definition, only of Telephone Company central offices. Each central office on the ReliaNet network is called a node. These nodes are equipped with the SONET transmission equipment necessary to produce the bandwidth to transport a variety of Access Services. Depending on the volume option level required by the customer, the inter-office network is sized to accommodate.

ReliaNet will utilize bandwidth from the inter-office network in terms of SONET Volume Options (SVOs) as illustrated in the table below.

SONET VOLUME OPTIONS (SVO)
SVO	BANDWIDTH
3	155.520 Mbps
6	311.040 Mbps
12	622.080 Mbps
24	1244.160 Mbps
48	2488.320 Mbps

The inter-office network provides high capacity bandwidth ranging from SVO (3) to SVO (48). The customer gains access to this inter-office network via Master Access Connections (MAC) and Auxiliary Connections as described following.

(1) Master Access Connection (MAC)

The Master Access Connection (MAC) is always required in conjunction with the inter-office network and is considered the primary aggregation point of the customer's traffic to or from the network. The MAC provides transport capacity from the inter-office network. This capacity is utilized via Auxiliary Connections (as described following) which are associated with that particular MAC.

⁽¹⁾ Effective February 16, 2012, ReliaNet is no longer available to new Customers. There is no change for existing Customers.
