A2. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A2.3 Establishment And Furnishing Of Service

A2.3.1 Availability Of Facilities

- A. The Company's obligation to furnish service is dependent upon its ability to secure and retain, without unreasonable expense, suitable facilities and rights for the provision of such service.
- B. The rates and charges quoted in this Guidebook provide for the furnishing of service and facilities where suitable facilities are available or when the construction of the necessary facilities does not involve excessive costs.
- C. When excessive costs are involved for the construction of facilities, charges for such construction will be determined in accordance with the terms and conditions as set forth in Section A5. "Charges Applicable Under Special Conditions", except as otherwise specified.
- D. The economical operation of the telephone business, for the benefit of the whole body of rate payers and to the business itself may require changes in wire center and base rate area boundaries. The rates for service furnished to customers affected when such changes take place will be recalculated based on the application of the approved methods of applying charges and the customer will be informed of any increase or decrease in their rates prior to the time of the change.
- E. The Company may discontinue certain services in geographic areas for which the Company has no customers subscribing to those services. (C)

In addition, and subject to the appropriate regulatory approvals, the Company may grandfather or discontinue all services governed by this Guidebook in certain geographic areas at its discretion. Once grandfathered, such services will no longer be available for purchase and existing customers will no longer be able to move, add or change their existing service. ¹ (C)
