ACCESS SERVICES

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS-(Continued)

2.1 Undertaking of the Telephone Company-(Continued)

2.1.4 Provision of Services-(Continued)

- D. The Telephone Company may, where such action is reasonably required in the operation of its business (1) substitute, change or rearrange any facilities used in providing service under this tariff, including but not limited to (a) substitution of different metallic facilities, (b) substitution of carrier or derived facilities for metallic facilities used to provide other than metallic facilities and (c) substitution of metallic facilities for carrier or derived facilities used to provide other than metallic facilities (2) change minimum network protection criteria, (3) change operating or maintenance characteristics of facilities or (4) change operation or procedures of the Telephone Company. In case of any such substitution, change or rearrangement, the facility parameters will be within the range as set forth in Sections 6 and 7, following. The Telephone Company shall not be responsible if any substitution, change or rearrangement renders any IC-furnished services obsolete or requires modification or alteration thereof or otherwise affects their use or performance. If such substitution, changes or rearrangements materially affect the operating characteristics of the facility, the Telephone Company will provide reasonable notification to the IC in writing. Reasonable time will be allowed for any redesign and implementation required by the change in operating characteristics. The Telephone Company will work cooperatively with the IC to determine reasonable notification procedures.
- E. The Company may discontinue certain Company services in geographic areas for which the Company has no customers subscribing to those services.
- F. The Company may grandfather or discontinue Company services in certain geographic areas at its discretion, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals. All services described in this Tariff will no longer be available for purchase by new or existing customers in certain geographic areas in Missouri. In addition, requests to move, add or change existing service will not be accepted. Existing customers may cancel features on their existing service.
