

Mobility National Retail Service Connection Charge Waiver

A retail promotional period shall be established from February 15, 2008 through December 31, 2014. (C)
During this promotional period, eligible residence customers who place their order for new phone service with AT&T will receive a waiver of the line connection and central office charges.

Eligible customers must subscribe to an AT&T network access line and a minimum of the Complete Choice® Basic package via an AT&T Mobility store or a National Retailer.