A13.7 Subscriber Transfer Service

A13.7.1 General

- A. Subscriber transfer service is an arrangement which enables a subscriber to have calls incoming on one line transferred to a second previously designated line at a different location when there is no one available to answer on the first line. The transfer arrangement is restricted to business or domestic establishments on the same or different premises of the same subscriber, his representatives and associates or to members of the subscriber's immediate family.
- B. Subscriber transfer service may be used only in connection with individual line service.
- C. Subscriber transfer service only provides for the second previously designated line to receive transferred calls from one line.
- D. When subscriber transfer service is provided in multi-office exchanges, both lines must be served out of the same central office.

A13.7.2 Rates and Charges

- 1. Subscriber transfer arrangement, including transfer key<sup>f</sup>
