A2. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A2.3 Establishment And Furnishing Of Service

A2.3.1 Availability Of Facilities

- A. The Company's obligation to furnish service is dependent upon its ability to secure and retain, without unreasonable expense, suitable facilities and rights for the provision of such service.
- B. The rates and charges quoted in this Guidebook provide for the furnishing of service and facilities where suitable facilities are available or when the construction of the necessary facilities does not involve excessive costs.
- C. When excessive costs are involved for the construction of facilities, charges for such construction will be determined in accordance with the terms and conditions as set forth in Section A5, except as otherwise specified.
- D. Company representatives will explain the availability of all individual line Basic Local Exchange Service options when customers call the Company's business office requesting new service or change in their Basic Local Exchange Service.
- E. The Company may discontinue certain Company services in geographic areas for which the Company has no customers subscribing to those services. The Company may grandfather or discontinue services in certain geographic areas at its discretion, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals. All services described in this Guidebook will no longer be available for purchase by new or existing customers in certain geographic areas. In addition, requests to move, add or change existing service will not be accepted. Existing customers may cancel local features on their existing service.<sup>(1)</sup>

A2.3.2 Flat, Measured<sup>2</sup> And Message<sup>2</sup> Rate Service

- A. When Flat, Measured, Message or RegionServ Rate Service is offered in an exchange, an applicant may, at his option, select either type of service or combination of services for the applicant's private residence location. An applicant at a business location may select either Flat, Measured, Message or RegionServ Rate Service when they are available in the exchange. However, a combination of these different types of services will not be furnished to the same subscriber at the same business location. Different applicants at the same business location, even in the same office, may each subscribe to a different type of service as long as each applicant has a different account and the applicants do not share a communication or other key-type system. The exceptions to the mixing restrictions for business locations are listed following:
  1. To existing hotel subscribers as of July 1, 1988, where Flat Rate Service may be furnished for the exclusive use of the hotel management, in addition to the Measured, Message or RegionServ Rate Service ordinarily provided in guests' rooms and lobbies. Flat Rate Service may be provided in guests' rooms and lobbies, in lieu of Measured, Message, or RegionServ service, in addition to Flat Rate Service for management use. Guests may also contract separately for the services that may otherwise be available to them. Effective July 1, 1988, new hotel subscribers will not be allowed to combine Flat Rate Service with Message, Measured or RegionServ Rate Service.
  2. To existing hospital subscribers as of July 1, 1988, where Flat Rate Service may be furnished for the exclusive use of the hospital management, in addition to the Measured, Message or RegionServ Rate Service ordinarily provided in patients' rooms and lobbies. Flat Rate Service may be provided in patient rooms and lobbies in addition to Flat Rate Service for management use. In addition, patients may also contract separately for the services that may otherwise be available to them.
  3. To premises where pay telephones may properly be located;
  4. To local lines used for In-Classroom Computer Access Service as described in paragraphs A3.32, A42.1.2.H and A42.2.2.H;
  5. To premises where Back-Up Line service may properly be located with flat rate primary line service;
  6. To premises where toll terminals are located;
  7. To premises where Flat Rate Service is used for voice transmission and usage service is used for transmission of medical information only, for contingency or temporary use during service outages of the main communication system only, for lines to the subscriber's own automatic attendant or voice mail system only, for fax machines only, or for computer data communications only, and the usage lines are not part of the primary voice system at that location. It shall also apply for premises where usage service is used for voice transmission and Flat Rate Service is used for the same purposes stated above;
  8. To premises where Flat Rate Service is used for voice transmission and the customer subscribes to a service for which the Company requires usage rated network access such as, but not limited to, MegaLink service and LightGate service.
